SECTION 3: PROCEDURES

3.1. RECIPIENTS OF PAYMENT. The Secretary concerned makes TC payments to Service member dependents, former dependents, or court-appointed guardians if:

a. The Service member was married at the time he or she committed the dependent-abuse offense that resulted in separation, compensation is paid to the spouse or former spouse to whom the Service member was married at the time. Compensation will also be paid to each dependent child of the Service member who resides in the same household as that spouse or former spouse.

b. The Service member's spouse or former spouse is eligible to receive TC and the Service member has one or more dependent children who do not reside in the household of the spouse or former spouse, TC is also paid to each of the Service member's dependent children who were residing in the household at the time of the abuse, but do not reside with the spouse or former spouse.

c. The Service member's spouse or former spouse is ineligible to receive TC because of remarriage, cohabitation, or active participation (see Paragraph 3.3. for information on forfeiture provisions), TC is only paid to each of the Service member's dependent children who were residing in the household at the time of the abuse, but do not reside with the spouse or former spouse.

d. There is no spouse or former spouse for reasons other than those in Paragraph 3.3. (e.g., because the Service member had no spouse or the spouse has died), payments are made to each of the Service member's dependent children who do not reside in the Service member's household.

e. A recipient is incapable of handling his or her own affairs; payments may be made only to a court-appointed guardian. For a dependent child under 18 years of age, payments may be made only to a court-appointed guardian or a parent who has legal custody of the dependent child or children and who is not also the abuser.

3.2. PAYMENTS.

a. Beginning Payments.

(1) Service Member Convicted by a Court-martial for a Dependent-abuse Offense.

Payment of TC begins:

(a) On the date the court-martial sentence is adjudged, if the sentence, as adjudged, includes a dismissal, dishonorable discharge, bad conduct discharge, or forfeiture of all pay and allowances; or

(b) On the date the person acting in accordance with Section 860, Article 60(c) of Chapter 47 of Title 10, U.S.C. approves the court-martial sentence if:

1. There is a pre-trial agreement that provides for disapproval or suspension of the dismissal, dishonorable discharge, bad conduct discharge, or forfeiture of all pay and allowances; and

2. The sentence, as approved, includes an unsuspended dismissal, dishonorable discharge, bad conduct discharge, or forfeiture of all pay and allowances.

(2) Service Member Considered for Administrative Separation from Active Duty. If the basis for the separation includes a dependent-abuse offense, payment of TC to a spouse or former spouse or dependent children begins on the date when a commander of the Service member initiates the separation action.

(3) Suspension or Deferral of Total Forfeiture of Pay and Allowances Pursuant to a Sentence of a Court-Martial. In the case of payment of TC by reason of a total forfeiture of pay and allowances pursuant to a sentence of a court-martial, payment of TC will not be made for any period for which an order:

(a) Defers or suspends, in whole or in part, that part of a sentence that includes total forfeiture of the Service member's pay and allowance; or

(b) Otherwise results in continuation, in whole or in part, of the Service member's pay and allowances.

b. Duration. Payments must continue, unless otherwise forfeited under Paragraph 3.3 of this issuance, for at least 12 months and no more than 36 months, as prescribed by the Secretary concerned. When the unserved portion of the Service member's obligated active duty service, as of the starting date of payment, is greater than 12 months and less than or equal to 36 months, payments continue for no less than the unserved portion.

(1) For enlisted Service members, obligated active duty service is the time remaining on their terms of enlistment.

(2) For officers, obligated active duty service is indefinite unless an officer has a date of separation established. In that case, it is the time remaining until the date of separation.

c. Amount.

(1) The spouse or former spouse is paid monthly the amount currently in effect, in accordance with Section 1311(a)(1) of Title 38, U.S.C.

(2) If the spouse or former spouse to whom compensation is paid has custody of a Service member's dependent child or children who reside(s) in the same household as that spouse or former spouse, the amount is increased for each dependent child by the amount in effect for that month, in accordance with Section 1311(b) of Title 38, U.S.C.

(3) If each dependent child receives compensation, as described in Paragraph 3.1.a., such compensation is paid monthly in equal shares, with the amount determined in accordance with the rates in effect for that month pursuant to Section 1313 of Title 38, U.S.C. For payments for more than one dependent child, if the payment amount does not divide evenly, the youngest dependent child receives the odd cent.

- (4) Partial month entitlements are pro-rated.
- (5) If a recipient dies, arrears of payments are not paid.
- (6) Payment for a dependent child does not cover any period before the birth of the child.

(7) As long as the payee meets the eligibility criteria in Paragraph 3.1. at the time TC payment begins under Paragraph 3.2.a., the payee is entitled to TC for the duration established by Service regulations (see Paragraph 3.2.b.) even if the payee ceases to meet the definition of dependent child at some point during receipt of TC.

d. Stopping Payment.

(1) Payments will be stopped if:

- (a) The conviction that is the basis for the payments is disapproved or set aside.
- (b) The sentence resulting from the conviction that is the basis for the payment is disapproved, remitted, set aside, or mitigated to a lesser punishment so that it does not include a dismissal, dishonorable discharge, bad conduct discharge, or forfeiture of all pay and allowances.
- (c) Under applicable regulations, the competent authority disapproves the proposed administrative separation that is the basis for payment.
- (d) The spouse, former spouse, or child(ren) forfeit their eligibility, as described in Paragraph 3.3.

(2) If payment is stopped for any of the reasons in Paragraphs 3.2.d.(1)(a) through (d), payments will end on the first day of the first month following the month in which the recipient is notified in writing that the payment of TC will stop (e.g., if the recipient is notified on March 16, then payments will stop effective April 1).

(3) Recipients are not required to repay amounts of TC received before the effective date payment is stopped, in accordance with Paragraph 3.2.d.(2); however, TC may be recouped for erroneous payments or payments made based on false information provided.

e. Taxability. Payments are considered benefits that are excludable from taxation and should not be reported on Internal Revenue Service Form 1099R, "Distribution from Pensions, Annuities, Retirement of Profit Sharing Plans, Individual Retirement Accounts, Insurance Contracts, etc."

3.3. FORFEITURE PROVISIONS.

a. Remarriage. The former spouse receiving TC must notify DFAS within 30 days of remarriage.

(1) The Secretary concerned stops payment effective the date the recipient remarries. The Secretaries will not renew payments if the subsequent marriage is terminated.

(2) If a Service member's dependent child is not living in the same household as the former spouse when the former spouse remarries, payments are made to each dependent child or his or her court-appointed guardian.

b. Cohabitation.

(1) The spouse or former spouse must notify DFAS within 30 days of the date the Service member begins residing in the same household as them or any dependent child(ren) receiving TC payments.

(2) When the Service member lives in the same household as the spouse, former spouse or dependent children receiving TC payments:

(a) Compensation payments end as of the date the Service member begins living in that household, if, after a punitive or other adverse action is executed, the Service member lives in the same household as the spouse or former spouse or dependent child or children to whom compensation is otherwise payable.

(b) Compensation paid for a period after the Service member's separation, but before the Service member resides in the same household, is not recouped.

(c) Compensation will not be resumed if the Service member subsequently ceases to live in the same household before the end of the period of eligibility for such payments.

c. Participation of the Spouse or Former Spouse.

(1) When the victim of the dependent-abuse is a dependent child or children, and the Secretary concerned determines the spouse or former spouse actively participated in the conduct constituting the dependent-abuse offense, TC will not be paid to the spouse or former spouse.

(2) If a Service member's dependent child is not living in the same household as the spouse or former spouse, payments are made to each dependent child or his or her court-appointed guardian.

d. Annual Certification. In order to continue benefits, the spouse or former spouse must annually certify in writing to DFAS that he or she is not remarried or is not cohabitating with the Service member separated for the abuse.

3.4. COORDINATION OF BENEFITS. A spouse or former spouse may not concurrently receive TC payments and retired pay payments pursuant to Sections 1059 and 1408(h), respectively, of Title 10, U.S.C. If a spouse or former spouse is eligible for both TC payments and retired pay payments, the spouse or former spouse chooses which of the two payments to receive. If the spouse or former spouse receives TC payments and later receives payments from a Service member's retired pay, any TC received concurrently with retired pay must be recouped.

3.5. SOURCE OF FUNDS. TC must be paid from operations and maintenance funds of the Department of the Service member.
